Parents Evenings ~ Next Monday and Tuesday

Please make your appointments on line as soon as possible. The letter was sent via Parent Hub on Thursday giving information on how to book appointments.

Please arrive a few minutes before your appointment so that you can view your child's books in Year 1 to Year 6.

We ask where possible parents that are separated make appointments together.

If you need any help booking appointments, please ring the school office.

A wonderful week in pictures:

Our Halloween disco was great fun! Our brilliant Year 5 and Year 6 School Council representatives were selling poppies last week. Our choir club at lunchtimes are busy practising for Christmas - Unsworth is special place to be. It is a calm, happy and purposeful learning environment.

BBC

Children in Need

We want to raise some money to donate to Children in Need. Please pay your donations for Non-uniform on Parent Pay.

Please ensure they have appropriate footwear to play outside.

Anti Bullying Week

This week we will be reminding and refocusing the children to think about bullying and we will be recapping the clear definition of bullying.

Sometimes children are quick to use the phrase 'I'm being bullied' when actually it is a one off, falling out or a friendship issue.

There is some useful information for schools, parents and carers on the Anti-Bullying Alliance Website.

WhatsApp

I appreciate the value of the class WhatsApp Groups. I know most schools have them and that parents find them useful.

Please can I ask though that if you have a specific query about your child that your first port of call is to email the office and ask for a meeting or phone conversation.

Please can I also ask that you are respectful and kind to school staff.

There is always a bigger picture why decisions are made and information that you may not be aware of.
